AH-125 / MH-125 ARES

A multi-role combat-capable version of the best-selling H125, designed to meet the most demanding requirements of the U.S. government's military and parapublic allies and partners.

Made in America

- Airbus Helicopters in North America
- 50+ years
- U.S. military veteran workforce: 35% in Columbus, MS

Production Site

Columbus, Mississippi (220,000 sq. ft.)

U.S. Headquarters

Grand Prairie, Texas

Tactical Transport

Up to 8 troops for transport and insertion missions

Light Attack

Best useable weight of any aircraft in its class, offering the most endurance, range, and payload options.

MEDEVAC / CASEVAC

Casualty evacuation operations even with other mission configurations installed.

Other missions

- Special Operations Insertion and Extraction
- Air Assault
- Combat Search and Rescue (CSAR)
- Firefighting and Disaster Relief

AH-125 ARES

- Interchangeable in ~30 minutes
- MAG weapon system: A wide range of weapons can be integrated on multiple weapon stations per pylon
- Cockpit and cargo area ballistic protection

MH-125 ARES

- Fast rope and hoist operations: Best cabin in its class, with a flat floor and cargo / passenger compartment design
- Downlink / Uplink for data sharing
- Multiple radio options available
- Installation allows for doors-on through mission scenarios
- Searchlight
- Fast roping